

THE DAYLIGHT STORE

SPECIAL SALE

HEAVY UNDERWEAR

FOR MEN, WOMEN and CHILDREN

Men's Union Suits

$5.00 Values	$3.75
$4.00 Values	$2.75
$2.50 Values	$1.75
$2.00 Values	$1.45
$1.50 Values	$1.15
$1.00 Values	75c

Women's Union Suits

$3.50 Values	$2.50
$3.00 Values	$2.15
$2.00 Values	$1.45
$1.75 Values	$1.25
$1.50 Values	$1.15
$1.00 Values	75c

Boys' Union Suits

$1.25 Values	95c
$1.00 Values	75c
75c Values	55c

Children's Union Suits

$1.50 Values	$1.15
$1.25 Values	95c
$1.00 Values	75c

Men's, Women's and Children's Sweaters 25 per cent Discount

AMERICAN CLOTHING HOUSE

QUALITY CORNER

W. M. Spears, of northeast Bates, while in town Saturday complimented this office with a call.

One day last week the McGuire Mercantile company of Virginia bought $1,280 worth of turkeys, according to the Amoret Leader.

Roy Culbertson and wife of Ft. Scott are spending the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Culbertson.

Mrs. Helen Kersey and daughter, Miss Mollie, arrived the last of the week from Okmulgee, Okla., for a visit at the home of Geo. Kersey.

Mrs. W. J. Middleton came last Saturday from an extended stay in California. For the past few months she has been at Sacramento.—Uriah Herald.

John Hartsock, an old time Butler boy, arrived the last of the week for a visit with Butler relatives. Mr. Hartsock is a son of the late Sheriff Hartsock.

S. L. Roberts, who was arrested at Amoret last week charged with the theft of a suit case plead guilty in circuit court and was sentenced to one year in jail.

Miss Mary Braden, a teacher in the Kensington school at Kansas City, spent her Christmas vacation in this city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Braden.

James Thompson and Harriet, who arrived the last of the week from Columbia, where they are attending the University, to spend the Christmas holidays with their parents.

V. L. Johnson, Jr., an engineer in the office of the state highway department at Jefferson City, spent his Christmas vacation in this city at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Johnson.

Zotis Howard arrived overland the last of the week from Okmulgee, Okla., for a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Howard. Zotis is engaged in the automobile business in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brakensiek came Saturday from Junction City, Kans., for a visit at the home of her parents, Major and Mrs. E. S. Clarke. Mr. Brakensiek was formerly the efficient secretary of the Butler Chamber of Commerce, resigning about a year ago to accept a similar position with the Junction City Club.

A. L. Gilmore, of Deepwater township, was in Butler one day the last of the week and made The Times office an appreciated call. Mr. Gilmore is one of the solid men of his section owning one of the best equipped stock farms in the county. He is a good Democrat and can always be found putting in his best ticks for the ticket.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brown and Mrs. J. L. McKinley of Hudson township were in Butler Saturday doing their Christmas shopping. While here Mrs. McKinley purchased a handsome gold watch for her son, Raymond, who when a small boy was promised a watch if he would abstain from the use of tobacco until he reached the age of twenty-one. Raymond faithfully kept his part of the bargain and the elegant watch he received is indeed a fitting reward.

We are in receipt of a letter from our old friend, John M. Pharis, of Barrons, Alberta, Canada, enclosing a remittance for another year's subscription to The Times. He says that all the Missourians in that part of the country are enjoying good health though they have been having what would in this country be called rather cool weather, the mercury at one time this winter registering 40 degrees below zero. Mr. Pharis was formerly a resident of Hudson township.

F. L. Boyd, the newly elected member of the high school faculty, arrived last week and is ready to take up his duties when school is resumed after the holidays. The resignations of Profs. Lee and Dillon necessitated several changes in the faculty of the school. Prof. Taylor was promoted from the principalship of the school to superintendent of schools. Miss Steele was advanced to the principalship of the high school. Prof. Boyd takes the place of Prof. Dillon, who was appointed to a place in the office of the state superintendent of schools and will leave for Jefferson City soon.

Greetings--

As we reach again the end of the old year, may we express the sincere hopes that it brings to you and yours every blessing desired. May the New Year find you with a broader vision of unselfish service to humanity, and may this New Year be one of contentment.

CITY DAIRY

A Letter From Black & Sons Clothing Co.

Butler, Mo., Dec. 28, '22.

To our Friends and Patrons:—

At this Yuletide Season, the season of good cheer, we want to take this opportunity of extending our heartiest greetings and to wish you and yours a most pleasant and Happy New Year.

And, too, may we say a word of thanks for the business you have so kindly turned our way during 1922 and especially mention that you made our Holiday Trade "biggest" in many years. This business has been sincerely appreciated and we trust has been so handled as to justify a continuance of our past pleasant relations.

And now, in closing, we wish every one of you a 1923 filled with health, joy, prosperity and plenty.

Yours very truly,
BLACK & SONS CLO. CO.

Mrs. Bessie Holloway and daughter, Miss Nadine, spent Christmas with Lloyd Gaines and family.

Miss Lizzie Ross, of the Republican-Press force, spent Christmas with Kansas City relatives.

Mrs. E. C. Mulkey was down from Kansas City spending Christmas with her mother, Mrs. H. L. Clinckebard.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marley and daughter, Miss Pauline, of Denver, Colo., spent a few days the last of the week in this city with friends. Mr. Marley was at one time a business man of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hargis spent Christmas with relatives at Atchison, Kans.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Priestly, of Pleasanton, Kans., were Butler visitors one day the last of the week.

N. J. Adams, of Adrian, chairman of the Bates county Democratic central committee, was a Butler visitor Saturday.

J. W. McCuiston leaves Thursday for Kansas City to spend the winter. He will probably go to the oil fields in the spring.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Buford Baker Thursday night, December 21, a fine girl baby to which has been given the name of Mary Lee Etta.

Mrs. C. F. Ditty arrived from Kansas City the last of the week for a several days visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. L. Coleman.

Miss Regna Stapleton, a student at the Central Teachers' Training College, Warrensburg, spent Christmas in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Stapleton.

Mrs. Violet Chatman and baby, of Kansas City, who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Seese, went to Nevada the last of the week for a visit with relatives.

Dr. J. H. Fletcher, of Cleveland, Mo., has sold his six acre tract and former residence at Spruce to H. C. Johnson of Cleveland. Mr. Johnson will run a poultry farm and also open up a barber shop in Spruce.

Miss Vivian Wolfe, a student at Central College, Fayette, Mo., spent her Christmas holidays with relatives and friends in this city. This is Miss Vivian's fourth year at Central college from which she will graduate at the end of the coming semester.

Prof. Stephen Smith, a member of the faculty of the Kirksville state teachers training college, was in town one day the last of the week. Prof. Smith was a former resident of the northeast part of the county and is a son of the late Judge Estes Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams arrived the last of the week from Columbia, where they are instructors in the University of Missouri, and spent their vacation in this city with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams, and her parents, Major and Mrs. J. E. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Wolfe arrived the last of the week from Bristow, Okla., to spend Christmas with their Butler relatives. Mr. Wolfe was many years ago a resident of this city at one time being connected with the Endres bakery, then located on North Main street. Since going to Oklahoma he has engaged in the oil and real estate business and has prospered.

G. A. Talley, of Clinton, has bought the Guyan property on North Main street.

J. C. Garrett, who is employed by a drug firm at Marshall, Mo., spent Christmas in this city with home folks.

Chas. McFarland, who represents The Walton Trust Company in eastern Oklahoma, spent Christmas in this city with his family.

Miss Bessie Armstrong, formerly of this city, a daughter of the late Judge Armstrong, died in Kansas City Thursday, December 14.

The city council of Rich Hill last week awarded contracts for the improvement of the light and water plants at that place and for some new machinery.

Miss Alice DeArmond arrived the last of the week from St. Louis, where she is attending school, to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. DeArmond.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Miller and daughter, Miss Doris, came down from Kansas City Sunday and spent a few days in this city at the home of his mother, Mrs. G. C. Miller, and sister, Mrs. E. A. Hardin.

Judge H. E. Sheppard, W. W. Cannon and W. H. Smith returned Sunday from a trip to Benton county, where they spent several days hunting turkeys. They were successful in bagging a fine bird.

Frank Tuttle, city editor of the Cass County Democrat, one of the best papers in this section of the state, spent Christmas in this city with old friends. Frank was for several years connected with this paper and we are glad to say that he is making good with the Democrat.

Prof. Frank Deerwester and family, of Pittsburg, Kans., spent Christmas at the home of his father, John Deerwester, northeast of town. Prof. Deerwester, who is one of the foremost educators of this part of the country is connected with the teachers training college at Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eiler entertained with an elegant goose dinner at their beautiful country home west of the city on Christmas day the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Piggott; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bond; Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Dickerson; Mr. Joe Piggott and Master Robert Piggott.

Word was received here this Tuesday, morning of the destruction by fire of the residence of Albert Ehart, formerly of Rich Hill, at Rockville at an early hour Tuesday. No one was at home at the time. No further particulars were given as to the loss and insurance.—Rich Hill Review.

Call at Fisher's Electric Shop for all kinds of electrical supplies. Telephone 202.

FISK'S OPERA HOUSE

Phone 60

THURSDAY

May McAvoy in
"HOMESPUN VAMP"
A News and Review
10 and 20c

FRIDAY

Lon Chaney in
"THE TRAP"
And Charlie Chaplin in his Latest
"PAY DAY"
10 and 20c

SATURDAY

Tom Mix in
"JUST TONY"
And a new Clyde Cook Comedy
10 and 20c

MONDAY

Herbert Rawlinson in
"UNDER COVER"
And 4th Episode Buffalo Bill
10 and 15c

TUESDAY

Norma Talmadge in
"THE WONDERFUL THING"
Also News
10 and 20c

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY

"THE STORM"
Yes, It's a Whale of a Big Picture
15 and 25c

FRIDAY

Bob Daniels in
"TRY, TRY AGAIN"
And Townsville Comedy
10 and 20c

SATURDAY

"KING OF THE TRACK"
And a Comedy

COMING — Freddie Barry in "Dixie" Tuesday and Wednesday, January 9 and 10.

Mysterious Key Contest

KEYS ALL OUT

Holders of keys will be allowed to try their keys in the lock, beginning Saturday, December 30th, at one o'clock, p. m., closing January 19th.

Stapleton Jewelry Company

Butler, Missouri

Phone 64